EVERYTHING DiSC
SALES

This Everything DiSC® program is sales-specific providing in-depth information, tips, strategies, and action plans to help salespeople become more effective. It helps salespeople understand their DiSC® style, recognize and understand customer buying styles, and how to adapt sales style to a customer's buying style.

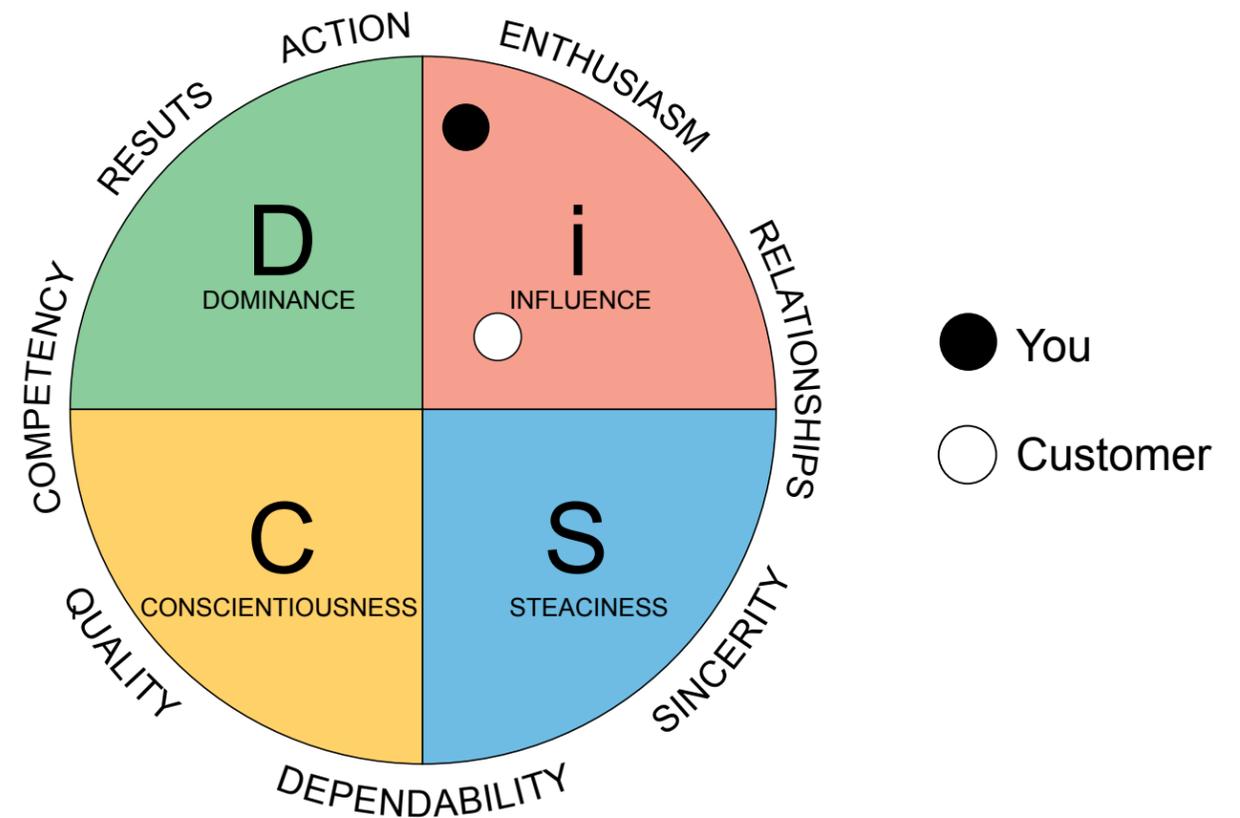

The Everything DiSC® Sales profile is about helping the sales team in organizations understand how they can do and become better at sales through adapting to the needs of their customers.

It contains a research-validated online in-depth assessment that will help salespeople understand themselves, their customers, and their relationships. It's easy to remove or rearrange pages or customize profiles.

The Everything DiSC® Sales profile includes:

- Follow-up reports
- Comparison reports
- Culture reports

These follow-up tools help salespeople understand their sales styles, how to adapt them, and helps them be more effective in meeting the needs of the customers.
